James Signorelli, a pharmacist employed in the Red Cross pharmacy, is in receipt of a letter from Dr. L. Andreola, a former Barre physician, in which the doctor states that he is still awaiting orders to go to the front in Italy. When the physician closed his practice in this city and decided to answer the government's call to the colors, he planned on leaving for Italy at once. Delays, however, kept him from departing for the homeland until last October. Just now, he informs Mr. Signorelli, he expects to be assigned to duty with a medical corps that is being organized from the physicians in all of the principal cities of Italy and the Italian possessions.

In the aftermath of the Connecticut Valley Poultry show, which was held in Bellows Falls recently, it develops that W. B. Scott of this city, the well known Barred Rock breeder, won the association cup for having the best display of Barred Plymouth Rocks among the 1,100 birds that made up the show. Information of the award came to Mr. Scott only a few days ago through the medium of a letter addressed to him by the secretary of the association. By virtue of the fine showing made by his birds, Mr. Scott becomes the permanent possessor of a handsome silver loving cup, valued at $50 or thereabouts.

In our Bargain Basement are all of our Dolls and Toys, all of our Special Sale Goods, and Outing Flannels. When our Dolls and Toys first arrived, we thought that we had more than we could sell. We knew that they were well bought and believed them to be of the very best quality. Now we find that we were right as to what people did want in this line. Now we are up against it again, by not having nearly one-half as many of these kinds as the trade demand, and dealers are all sold out, so that we cannot get more until another season. By Saturday evening we will be well closed out of Dolls and Toys. Visit this Bargain Basement for special sales.
